

Phila May 26th 1860

My dear Miss Weston

Please
excuse me for trespassing on your time, but I feel very anxious to engage in something which will be more active, and healthful
and remembering your kindness, and the comfort of your sympathy whilst in Germantown, concluded
to ask if you heard
or knew of anything
to please remember me

I should like very much to travel, or do any active work which I was competent to perform, I have paid two visits to Germantown since
I left, and once
went through the house in Price St.
Aber, never can I forget the dear, gentle one who passed so suddenly away in that front chamber. Dr & Mrs Malin have

proven good kind friends, and are very anxious to see Howly & Tessy. I think the boys have both grown very much. But poor Howly, I fear
suffers from his nervous affection, his favorite position is very injurious I fear.
sitting almost double.
There is a beautiful
monument in the form of a cross erected over the grave

as 'St James the Less I think you would like it. There is simply the same age and a verse from the Ashmole favourite chapter. 14 St John but I may be only wearing you, with what you already know. May I hope to hear from you? With the most grateful recollection of all you were to me I remain

Respectfully yours
Margaret H. Land
